Alcohol: 15.1%
pH: 3.70

On the Nose: Bright & rich on the nose. Red berry fruit with pronounced black currant, plum and rhubarb laced with exotic spice.....

On the Palate: Instant awareness of the big, lush mouth feel.... with layers of dense fruit. Blackberry, currant and spice are carried by a deep baseline of rich forest floor and earth. Big velvet tannins define the structure of this massive yet graceful wine. Its long mouth feel seduces you but its complexity keeps your senses popping. Long fruit profile maintains through out as it trails to a creamy oak finish that together with the fruit seem to go on forever... The best Slayer yet!!

Music to Taste by: Rush's two albums.... First "A Farewell to Kings"; fantastic songs including the epic "Xanadu" which was played with two double necks live, I might add, but you need to focus on the last song, Cygnus X-1, "The Voyage" book 1 of the epic rock opera "Hemispheres." Rush's second album "Hemispheres" side A is book two of the epic tale I described in the newsletter. Side B is incredible too with "Circumstances", "The Trees" and "Le Villa Strangiato". Together the two albums, in my opinion represent some of the greatest music ever put down on vinyl. Plug in your lava lamp, and enjoy!

2013 Kiler Canyon Vineyard

60 % Syrah
40% Mourvedre
100% Paso Robles

Alcohol: 15.1%
pH: 3.81
TA: .62
Cases Produced: 302

On the Nose: Bright strawberry fruit laced with loads of exotic spice. Cinnamon & clove stand up to the dark and brooding and trail to creamy oak finish.... bright, seductive but approach with caution.....

On the Palate: Dense Lush fruit.... Dark and mysterious. Strawberry giving way lush blackberry and black earth with hints of black liquorice..... seductive tannins weave a complex mid palette with flavors that get darker and more brooding. You have been seduced but now you are tied up and captivated. The dark influence of the mourvedre really presents itself about 60% in as the mood continues to get darker. Long on the palate with glimmers of light reflecting off shiny black latex..... and trail into a creamy oak finish laced with hints of toasted almond & spice.

Music to Taste by: Led Zeppelin "Black Dog", "Whole Lotta Love", "The Battle Of Evermore", "Kashmir", and finish with "The Rain Song". Van Halen "Pretty Women", "Ain't Takin Bout Love". ACDC "Back In Black", "You Shook Me All Night Long.

On the Nose:

Dark and dense, bright berry fruit with dusty rose, black slate and mineral, and rhubarb that trail into a demonic toasty oak crème brûlée... think

Bowie: "scary monsters.. super freaks"

On the Palate: Big, Rich mouth feel... with loads of dense black fruit. Currants, red & Blackberry and plum ride a massive structure. Big tannins that make no apology for their bodacious TA TAs and velvet mouth feel. The outrageousness continues and trails into silky velvet glove spanking laced with creamy oak... This is what I always wanted TNT to be!!!

Music to Taste by: Rush 2112.... Another epic story. What originally tuned me onto Rush and the start of what was one of their best albums. I would follow that up with "Natural Science" off of "Permanent Waves" and stay up all night with illicit substances trying to relive my high school days. Enjoy your youth...
