2012 Loco Tempranillo Paso Robles

Alcohol: 15.0%
pH: 3.90
Total Acid: 0.55
Cases Produced: 375

Oak Origin:

French (Tronçais)
Hungarian (Zemplén),
Romanian (Carpathian Mnts.)

On the Nose: Red berry fruit turning to dark berry fruit. Tar, boysenberry, and elderberry with hints of cream and dark chocolate.

On the Palate: Black fruit, boysenberry, cranberry, currants, and spice nestled into velvet tannins. The fruit is wrapped in cedar and oak trailing into a dark chocolate finish. The Bull is Out! It's time to run with him. NO FEAR!!

2012 Peasant Grenache 69% Syrah 13% Mourvèdre 18% 100% Paso Robles

Alcohol: 15.1%
pH: 3.81
Total Acid: 0.67
Cases Produced: 2112

On the Nose: Strawberry & black pepper with fleshy plum and red berry fruit laced with dried herb, spice and creamy oak.

On the Palate: Bright red and black fruit, layers of strawberry and blueberry. Long on the palate with luxurious mouthfeel and lanolin texture that rolls into dried herb and a subtle oak finish.

This wine is all about the ruckus country characters that make up the Rhône. Leading with bright Grenache and grounded in the weight and brooding combination of Syrah and Mourvèdre. It's as if there is just enough light to hold back all that dark.

My favorite pairing would be lamb chops, elk, bison or anything else with hint of game and rich provençal spice rub done on open fire grill laced with dried herbs. As it starts to get cold it would pair excellent with roast leg of lamb or a rich country stew.

Regal (re-gal) of notable excellence or magnificence.

The nose is so dense it has a velvet texture. Boysenberry and blueberry laced with hints of lavender and rosemary, trailing into a savory crème brûlée. Drooling.... I want steak. On the palate, rich red fruit married with deep blueberry. Silky tannins build around the fruit seemingly forever. Long in its story, finishes with anise and creamy oak.

2012 Grenache
"Drop Dead Legs"
Paso Robles

Alcohol: 15.0%
pH: 3.72
Total Acid: 0.62
Cases Produced: 315

This is a special blend of two vineyards: Seven Oxen Vineyard and the Kiler Canyon Vineyard. Seven Oxen is old school head pruned, Kiler Canyon is cutting edge high density planting pushing the extremes of grape growing. This wine will seduce you... probably take you down.... And this one is going to hurt... blissfully.

On the nose: Bright violet and lavender with black stone fruit and spice.

On the Palate: Black and red stone fruit turning bright with a hint of provençal herb, black cherry and laced with pepper and spice. Lively acid keeps the fruit bright and right up front with firm structure and mouthfeel dancing across the mid-palate. The flavors linger into a slow silky oak finish... it makes me think of lingerie.
